Credit Name: CSE 3120 Object-Oriented Programming 1
Assignment Name: LunchOrder
How has your program changed from planning to coding to now? Please explain?
The same as digitextractor i was gonna do all the code in the main program but putting the items in the food class just made it so much easier to write and way more cleaner to read										